“ I met Trudy over a year ago through a neighbor, Glenda Love. She was reserved, but kind. She let me in her life and became a dear friend. I was with her the morning she died and felt a blessing that she was in my life even if only for a short time. I got to meet her mother, daughters and sister and will always be glad I got to know this sweet gentle lady.

“ Hard as a rock, sharp as a tack yet sweet as pie. That's what you were to me. Wish we had more time, we had so many plans. My morning cup of coffee will never be the same. I have nobody to play backgammon, spend the day shopping at goodwills or pot plants. Thanks Trudy for being my BFF and thank you God for bringing her into my life.
