“ My sis I love you dearly. I'm going miss the holidays and birthdays with the family. Our football fights or just talking good junk to one another. I will forever hold you close to me. Paradise and peace is yours now. We will keep you alive in our hearts. Love bro E

“ Every year for my birthday she would throw me a party or we would go out to eat. One year she threw me a surprise birthday party she texted me like Hey , Daughter girl what you doing I said nothing she said come stop pass my house I miss you I said okay I'm on my way. So I come over there and all the lights were off it was dark I knocked on the door nobody answered at first so then I texted her like hey I'm here I'm outside she then opened the door the house was dark I was like mom why is it so dark in here she was like idk Bre go downstairs. I got something for you I said mom I'm scared she said BRE just go down there I need you to get something for me so I said mom it's scary down there mind you I didn't know where the light switch was that's why I'm scared so I went downstairs. I get to the fourth step my head went back and I said ouch Boom somebody smack me with a cupcake and everybody yelled SURPRISE!!! HAPPY BIRTHDAY BRE!!! I said omg mom thank you so much. Ballon's were everywhere the music came on out of no where and we all started laughing mommy couldn't stop laughing neither could I because I got smack so hard with the cupcake and I was scared. We then had cupcakes and ice cream and she cooked her amazing delicious food that I love so much and we dance she also told me if you don't know how to dance just step side to side or clap your hands but do it on the beat.
