*To Dennis and family,I know words cant really soften your sorrows,but I know Dennis you made Mr. HAYWOOD enjoy time spent together,I remember when I met him,you had him visit and he came by Dorothea Dix,where we worked,he enjoyed his visit,and Im sure the games you took him to and so on,
So remember the joy,you shared and smiles you gave him,for you and your family,and that will help wipe away the tears*

“ The absolute best memories of my childhood & young adulthood are filled with my cousin Haywood Dove and my grandad Robert Brunton. I will miss the way they laughed & sang “I’m sittin’ here, la, la, Waiting for my ya ya, Uh huh, uh huh” while they killed hogs or they would just randomly bust out singing it by themselves & together. ❤️ Rest easy & I know you & Daddy are singing Together again .

“ When Uncle was gardening, I would make a point to visit mommy around harvest time. Uncle Haywood would let us pick what we wanted. He said he was retired and he would plant even if no one picked it but I'm sure he knew none of it would go to waste. Erwin
