“ I just would like to thank God for covering my mother and my family at this time of bereavement and thank you to all who have hope my brother on this journey he took. To my mother who was there for him and did what any loyal and proud mother does. To his friend and brother from another mother Rodney we thank you for All that you did for my brother and to Simon Clark our cousin, we also thank and appreciate you so me check for everything that you did and we love you both and don't ever forget that, you are all truly angels put his life. Thanks for everyone who showed up and let us Know that you care. God bless all of us and your families as well

“ My brother, my twin I remember you were always saying, when I get married, you would give me away, bc our father left us at an early age. Granted we hv 3 other brothers, you had claimed that position. I'm heartbroken that I don't have you, if that moment ever shall come. I love you my twin and will miss you until the day God allows all our family to reunite in his Heavenly home. Rest in love and peace 🥹🥹🥹🥹🥹🥹
