“ T.T. we were always brothers from childhood. We just slept in different houses. We always had fun together growing up, no matter what the event or idea was for that day. We literally created our own fun. You, me, Ed Lee, Robert, Elo. Ed Hines, James, Johnny, Eric, & others in our Simon Bright/ Lovitt Hines crew. We didn't need money we had giuwine fun all the time. I think we were the last true generation that did that. That's saying something. We were blessed with each other in our little corner of the world. T, you finished your assignment from God. Rest in Power my Brother. We'll see you on the other side. Love you man.
